

Good morning, directors!

Now that your MSASB auditions are uploaded and complete, the audition site is up and ready for you to upload your 2017 Middle School All-State Jazz auditions. You will need your NAFME membership number (9 digits) just like the MSASB auditions. Please click the link below and use the account name and password listed in this email. PLEASE try to access your account now, even if you are not ready to upload. If you are unable to get into the site let me know right away and we will get it figured out. Please do NOT wait until January 5th to try it for the first time! The website is run by someone on the east coast and we have no direct access to the audition site. We can only make changes or fixes through him. Thank you for your help in making this all run smoothly.

Here is the link and the account name and password:
